A tribute to our parents . . .

Foreword

Look through these portals. See and remember the opportunities that are presented through experiences at Central, the record of the deeds of the boys and girls who for the past year embodied the spirit of our school. In the future, the yearbook will keep alive the memories richly stored up here. The years to come will bring new faces and changes to the school, but there shall be for us the record of the friends we knew, the things we did and the memories that are still dear to us, experiences (we must never forget) made possible by the countless hardships and efforts of our dear parents.

DEDICATION

To you who have been the influencing factors in our lives, who have guided us from the time we took our first toddling steps, to you, dear Mom and Dad, this twenty-seventh edition of our Memo is dedicated.

We seniors, in taking upon ourselves the responsibilities that come with adult life, gratefully appreciate the help you have given us throughout our school years and we are especially indebted to you for a good Catholic education, at the cost of a great sacrifice to you, which enabled us to better prepare for the future.

JUNIOR

One of the biggest thrills of our high school years was spending our "April in Paris" April 23, from 9 until 12 in the gymnasium.

Upon entering, one was immediately transported to the heart of gay Paree, with its side walk cafes, Parisian artists, traditional flower carts and its Eiffel tower, which served as center piece.

PROM

Music was furnished by the "Rhythm in Blue."

King and Queen of the Prom were Ann Herbstritt and Donald Sherry with Jacquelyn Largey and Ronald Nissel winning door prizes.

The committees included Frances Fritz, Carol Hoffman, Dolores Felton, Verna Gerber, William Clancy, Andrew Marconi, Donald Magistrelli and John Gump.

Months of advanced planning combined with weeks of industrious decorating resulted in what we think was the prettiest Prom ever.

DRAMATICS

The Dramatic Arts Club, a member of the National Thespian Society, Troupe 658, has striven to make this year an outstanding one in our dramatic activities. It is sponsored by Sr. Rose, without whose untiring efforts our club could never be the success it is today. A contributing factor in the success of our big play was Mr. Demchak, who volunteered to manage the lighting and staging and helped in the directing.

This year we can boast of the largest number of members our club has ever had, a total of one hundred seventeen. At the first meeting in September, the senior members elected the following officers: President, Jane Lambert; Vice President, William Clancy; Secretary, Jerome Steele; and treasurer, Carleen Straub. For our three-act play, an annual event, we selected "Sittin' Pretty," a farce comedy which was a tremendous success. Practice was commenced October 3, and hard work is not an apt description of what took place during the day that followed. On November 20, a matinee was given for the grade pupils and the nuns, and two more evening performances were held the following days for the general public. Many favorable comments were received.

"You don't belong to me" was staged for the Family Association of our school, December 11, and this gave the parents and faculty an opportunity to view our accomplishments. The cast did an exceptional job on this play and everyone thoroughly enjoyed it. Next, a Christmas operetta was presented twice for the school, most of the players being freshmen and they can well be proud of the good performance, their first opportunity to act.

The Dramatic club has many plans for the future including the annual state regional conference to be held this year at Ambridge, Pa. 20th of April and in June the big event, the Sixth National Dramatic Arts Conference at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. Nineteen members plan to attend. These conferences will conduct various workshops where the students may become educated in some of the arts of plays, acting, staging, and even helpful hints on prompting. The students are given an opportunity to witness plays presented by other students as well as to participate in any of the workshops. Many more plays and entertainments are being planned for special occasions.

Four members have achieved four gold stars which entitles them to Honor Thespians: outstanding performances, William Clancy and Andrew Marconi; performances and ever-ready assistance in every department, Jane Lambert; humble work of managing and back-stage work John Gump. Ignatius Schaut, who took a great interest in improving our stage lighting, is an Honorary Thespian member. Artists who deserve honorable mention for Art work are Verna Gerber and Donald Magistrelli.

DRIBBLING DOWN THE COURT

1955-56

The Central Crusaders produced a fine team this year in spite of losing its first four men. Coach Tom Bebble took over Varsity and George Bauer, the J. V.'s. Nine out of 10 league games was a very good average. The Church Street boys had their only defeat in league play at Clearfield, losing by 10 points. Their overall wins were 16, losses 5, the latter being to Johnstown, Clearfield, Oil City and St. Vincent.

In the scoring department Tub Hasselman took honors with 353 points to his credit. Following him were Rene Nicklas with 290, Sonny Lenze, 167, Dick Straub, 123.

The Crusaders were tied with Clearfield for the Eastern section of the Diocese, each losing one game to the other. The score in the playoff with them, March 1, at DuBois, was 44-40 in our favor. The first game of the playoffs with the Western part of the Diocese at Greenville, March 3, gave St. Michael's the advantage, 59 to 76. As this must go to press, the results of the second game, March 6, at the Gym, cannot be given.

The Junior Varsity had a successful season also, 16 wins, 3 defeats. In scoring, Don Sain tallied 222, Jake Meyer, 131, Karl Wegemer, 115.

Captain Bill Clancy, Coach Tom Bebble, Athletic Director Father Donald, J. V. Coach George Bauer, J. V. Captain Don Sain.
